

An Australian Government Initiative

national literacy and numeracy week 2006

28 AUGUST - 3 SEPTEMBER learning together

www.literacyandnumeracy.gov.au

Minister's Awards for Outstanding Contribution to Improving Literacy and/or Numeracy

Individuals nominated for these Awards will have demonstrated an outstanding commitment and made a major contribution to the improvement of literacy and/or numeracy outcomes within their Australian community over a significant period of time. Nominees can include volunteers, teachers, librarians, authors, principals, academics or parents.

Do you know someone deserving of national recognition who could be nominated for an award?

Up to five individual Awards of $10,000 each ($50,000 in total) are available.

How to Apply

To find out what is involved in making a nomination, go to <http://www.literacyandnumeracy.gov.au> to download the Nomination Pack including Award Guidelines.

Nominations must be received by 5.00pm AEST 27 April 2006.

National Literacy and Numeracy Week

Excellence Awards for Schools 2006

Rewarding excellence in teaching literacy and/or numeracy.

Minister's Awards for Outstanding Contribution to Improving Literacy and/or Numeracy 2006

Recognising individuals in the community who are making a difference.

National Participation Activities

Bringing communities together across the nation.

<http://www.literacyandnumeracy.gov.au>

Participate in national activities

NLNW brings communities together across the nation in a celebration of literacy and numeracy learning.

In 2006 key activities will include:

National Simultaneous Storytime

Reading Aloud is great for everyone. Join the fun!!!

All across Australia teachers, parents and children will be enjoying the same picture story book at the same time.

National Simultaneous Storytime will be held at 11.00am AEST on Friday 1 September 2006.

Reach for the Stars

A national mass participation numeracy event.

In 2006 students will answer the question: How fast is your class?

Read Aloud Conference

At this stage, the Read Aloud conference is scheduled to be held in Melbourne during National Literacy and Numeracy Week.

