

Catharine Hydon

With a Diploma of Teaching (early childhood) and an MEd in Early Childhood Education, Catharine has extensive experience in the early childhood sector in Australia and overseas. Beginning as a teacher in a sessional kindergarten program, Catharine moved on to manage a range of services for children and their families from long day settings to community hubs.

Catharine contributed to the review of the Early Childhood Australia (ECA) Code of Ethics in 2006 and 2012 as well as the facilitation of ongoing professional learning sessions to support educator's engagement with the code. She currently serves as the co-chair of the Reconciliation Advisory Group and is the ECA Victorian Branch President.
