

Amanda Macdonald

Amanda Macdonald is the Early Childhood Liaison Officer for the Early Learning Languages Australia (ELLA) program. As part of the ELLA team, Amanda delivers workshops and professional learning, and supports educators as they engage in language experiences and digital technology.

With an MEd in Special Education and over twenty years' experience teaching preschoolers, Amanda is passionate about inclusive education. She is mindful of supporting the differing needs of individual children, teachers and preschools.