

Libby Tuckerman

Libby Tuckerman is the General Manager of the digital teaching and learning portfolio at Education Services Australia. She oversees a range of digital projects and services for the Department of Education and Training, government-funded bodies and states and territories. Libby has supervised the successful delivery of a range of digital solutions and services including the Language Learning Space (LLS), the Early Learning Language Australia (ELLA) program, the Early Childhood Resource Hub and the Digital Technologies Hub. Prior to this, Libby worked as the eLearning Manager for National Australia Bank.

