

Catherine Way

Catherine Way is Programs Coordinator Early Years (STEM) for Museums Victoria. In this role she develops STEM and coding professional learning workshops for preschools and kindergartens.

Catherine is an experienced preschool teacher who, until recently, has been implementing early years coding and STEM programs for her students.

