

Jonathan Shearer

Jonathan Shearer is the STEM Programs Coordinator for Scienceworks, Museums Victoria. In this role he creates STEM learning programs for education groups and runs teacher professional learning, focused primarily on project-based learning, using STEM to solve real world problems in the classroom and how to best incorporate digital technologies into STEM.

